Dedication

Among the many wonderful, deserving people connected with McKinley High School, there is one who has made and will continue to make an almost unbelievable record in its history. During his 24 years of service he has brought us unsurpassed fame and glory in Ohio and throughout the nation. By winning 10 straight this year he has run up a victory string of 42 dual meets over the past four years. And again in '52 he has repeated last year's performance by copping the Ohio State schoolboy title, the seventh in his long career.

These accomplishments do not tell the whole story; for everyone who knows him admires his great understanding, especially of boys, his ability to train them for the roughest athletic competition, and his continuous production of clean, healthy citizens and men.

For all these things, we dedicate this 1952 McKinleyite to Mr. C. T. Branin.

ADMINISTRATION

Superintendent

HAROLD H. EIBLING

Dedicated to improved opportunities for Canton boys and girls was our Board of Education. Under Dr. Harold H. Eibling's sympathetic and competent leadership, Canton schools offered their best teaching to date. Dr. Eibling was aided by the new and able assistant superintendent, Dr. Robert Wilson. Successes at McKinley can be traced to its administrators—Mr. L. H. Booher, principal, and Mr. Lewis Baker, vice principal.

Handling finances, meeting with class committess, and planning and attending class affairs, these guardians helped the Class of 1952 enjoy their four years at McKinley. The guardians encouraged students to develop ideas for parties, programs and commencement affairs, and as a result this class staged some of the most successful affairs that McKinley has had.

Senior Committees

Swing your partner! In the fall seniors staged a junior-senior party with square and round dances that had even the shyest wallflowers on the floor dancing. Country decorations brightened the music room. Success of parties was due to the careful planning of such committees as the program, food, decoration and publicity groups.

Girls' Service League

Members of the Girls' Service League provided food for a family at Thanksgiving and Christmas. Women in the Aultman Home were visited by the Service League members, who presented a program for them in the spring. Directing freshmen to classes in September, ushering at the play, operetta and other programs, and sending cards to sick people are a few of the Girls' Service League activities. Miss Lillian Walton is the adviser and Cherie Lichtenwalter is president.

National Honor Society

Highest honor to be awarded a McKinleyite is election to National Honor Society. Students who have maintained a high standard of scholarship, shown leadership and revealed reliability were chosen to the society. This year thirty-seven students received the coveted honor. Mr. Lewis Baker is chairman of the committee.

One thousand and eight hundred boys and girls worked and played together at McKinley during 1951-1952. Activities ranged from staging humorous assemblies to managing student organizations. Class work took the most time, but play and operetta rehearsals, speech, publications, orchestra, and sports called for long hours and hard work, with achievement as the reward.

Junior officers led their class with competence. The planning of the Junior-Senior Prom left them undismayed and that affair, like others planned by the juniors, was a success. Miss Margaret Buel was chairman of junior guardians.

Juniors

Three years ago a timid, shy group entered McKinley . . . we are now the high and mighty juniors. The school building seemed tremendous to us then, it took us a little while to get acquainted with it, but now, because we know every nook and cranny, it seems a small place.

That first year was eventful, and we were plenty busy with football, basketball, swimming, track, baseball, tennis, election of officers, the class parties, the Canton-Massillon football game—not to mention books and studies.

The summer months whirled away on trips, loafing and swimming, or working. When school opened we found that we, the former looked-down-on freshmen, were now big-time sophomores, and it was our turn to talk about the blunders of the underclassmen.

Time rolled on and the first report cards of the year were taken home with anxiety. We cheered through the football season. Suddenly the Canton-Massillon classic was here. It was fun to parade through town, and on the Sunday after the game there was little noise to be heard from any of us, for we were hoarse from yelling for as hard a fighting team as ever played. Our class parties were lots of fun, although they were not as well attended as they deserved to be.

The big-time election came off satisfactorily, and all the kids seemed pleased with the results. Then came a big moment—the formals sponsored annually by the Hi-Y and Y-Teen around Christmas and Easter time. Spring dances were being planned and anticipated before winter formals were ended. The Christmas and New Year's parties had been especially enjoyable.

Second semester was interesting, with the state swimming championship, the wonderful basketball and baseball games, track meets. Summer came and most of us boys became hard-working men turning out a full day's work. In our spare time we lolled on the beach. June, July, August . . . then we were cramming the steps of the school again, searching the posted lists for our homerooms. Boy, that put us on the third floor with the seniors!

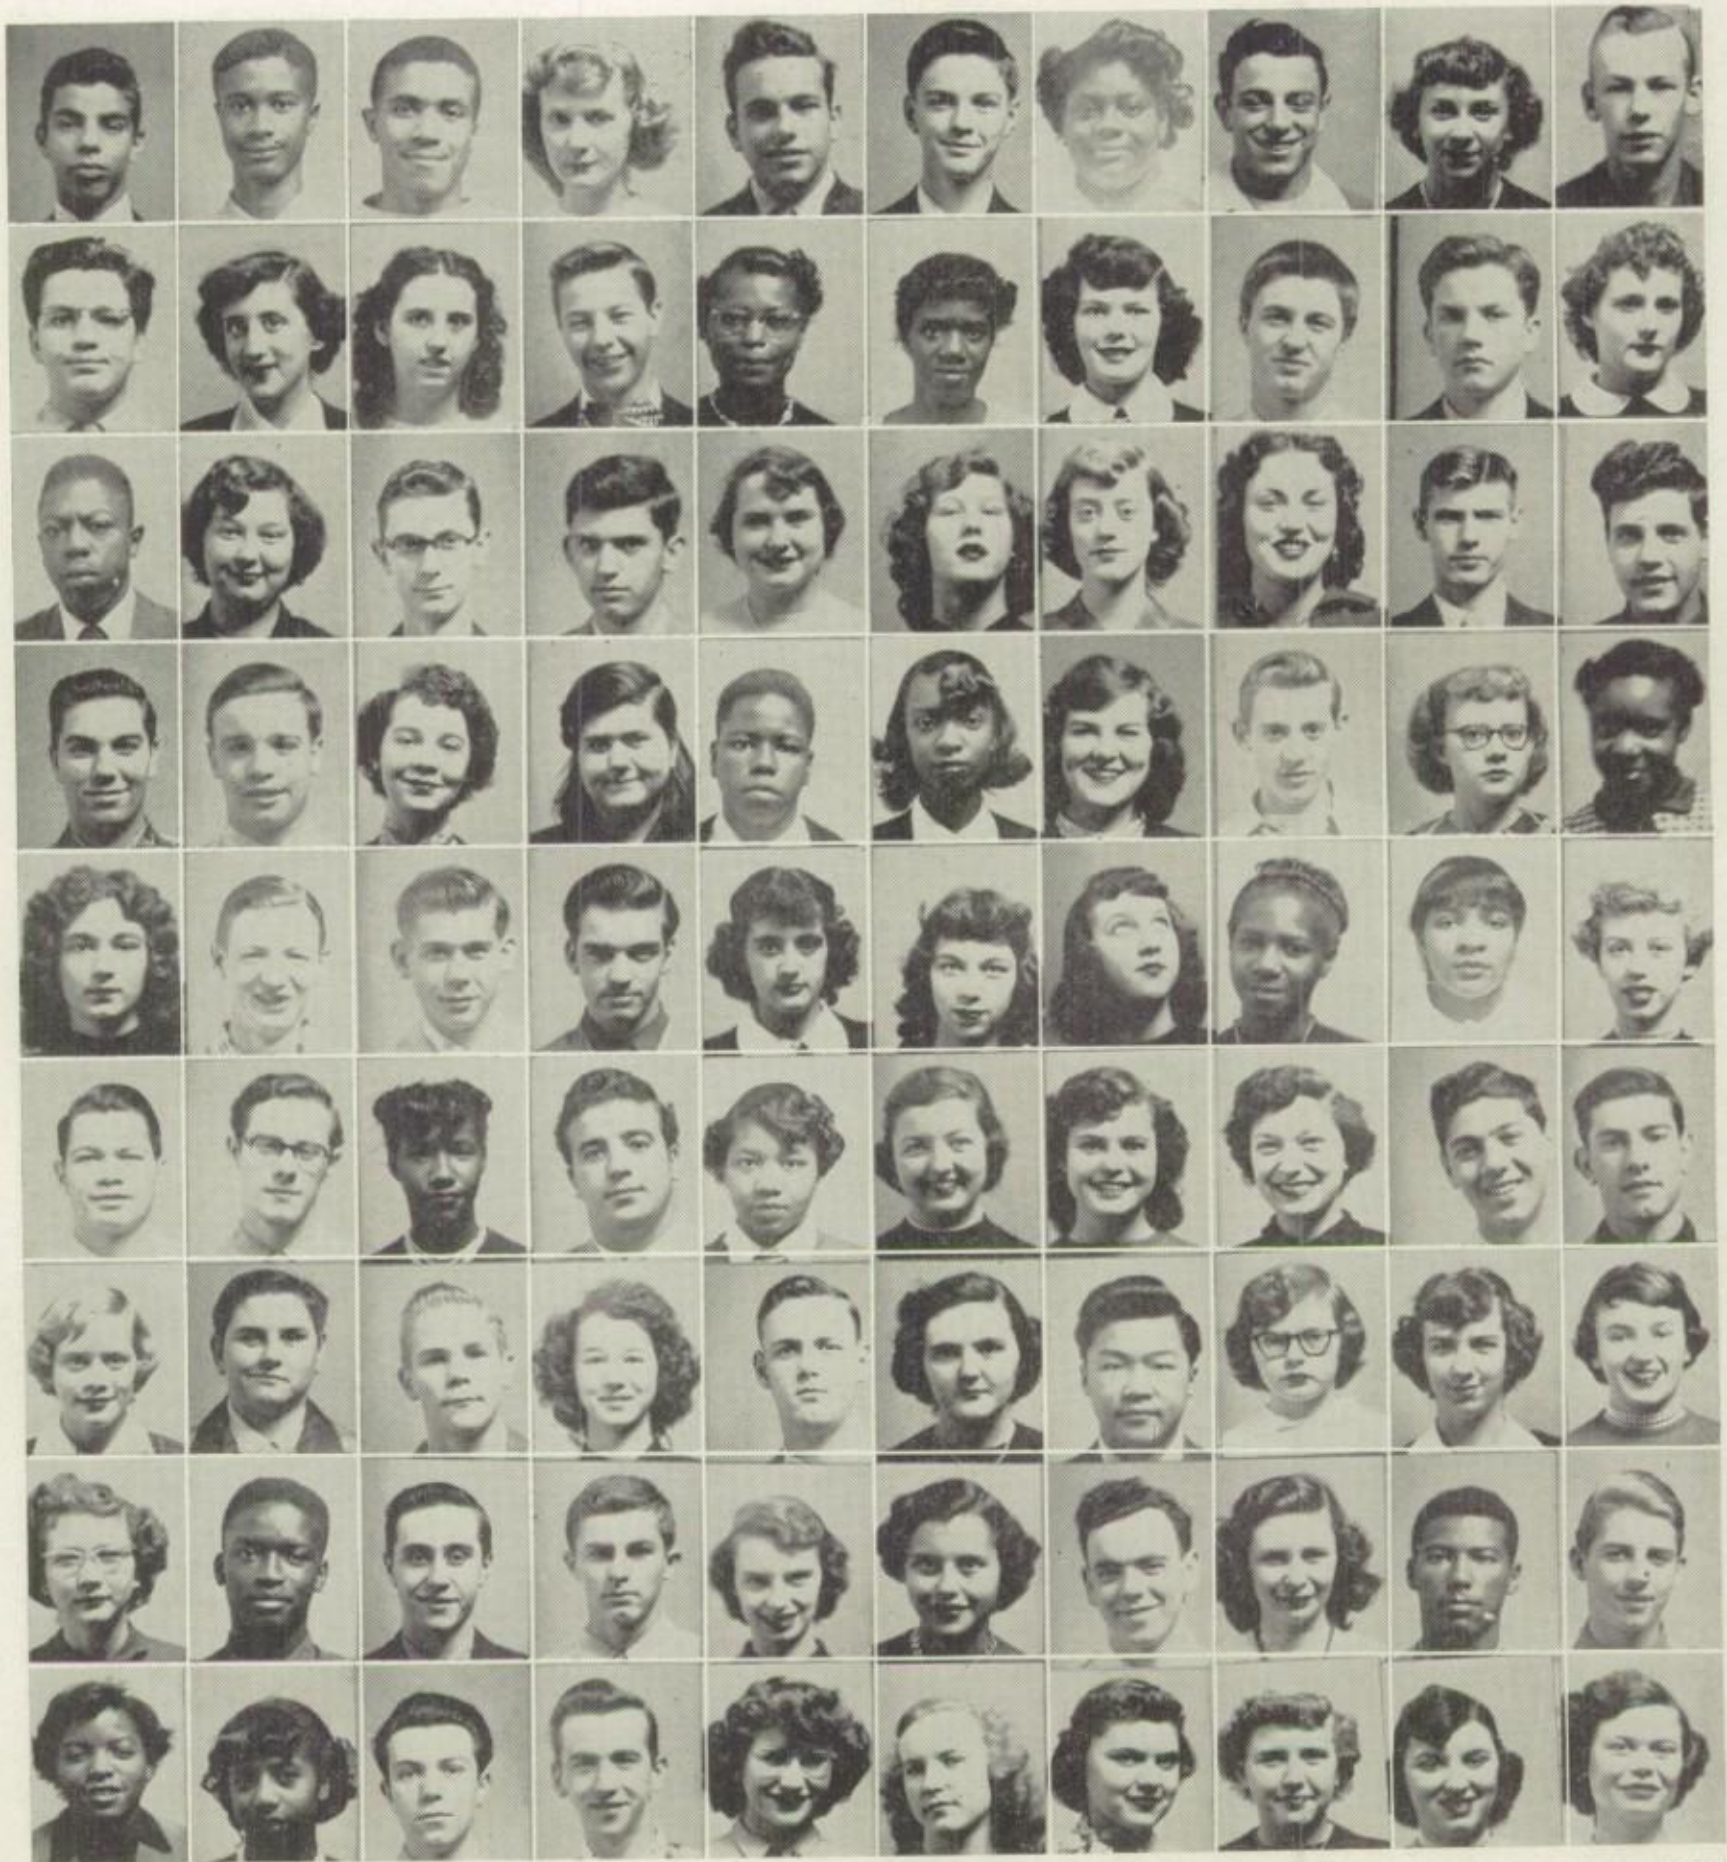

September was a busy month for us juniors, with the new classes and getting used to the routine again. This was the month with such fine weather that when we went out for lunch we wanted to stay outside the rest of the day. During the next month, the month of witches, we voted for our officers. No connection. Our officers were great. After the football season was launched, we voted for the football queen and her attendants before the terrific battle between Canton and Massillon—the annual duel between the Bulldogs and Tigers.

Then swimming and basketball started. We surely were busy—with the junior-senior party, the class play, football dance, and then Thanksgiving. Christmas approached with the significant traditions that make us love McKinley—the presentation of The Messiah, Christmas programs, collections for the unfortunate, and the caroling through the halls. We had a beautifully white Christmas. During the vacation, the swimmers continued their strenuous training.

January, February and March sped by. Yale trounced Harvard; time after time our varsity basketball team lost a hard-fought game in the last few minutes; we danced at the Sweetheart's Swing; we swam to first place in the state again; the speech department talked its way into the championship of the district meet. This was followed by the junior-senior Shamrock Shuffle, the debate meet at Ohio State, the operetta and the Junior Prom. Work of the Student Council was carried on quietly throughout the year, but their influence was important. For example, the silent period before lunch resulted from their plans. Always backing each activity were the Girls' and Boys' Booster officers and members. Many of the year's accomplishments would not have been possible without their help.

So long, juniors.

Turning their backs on T. V. and ignoring the radio, these students left no doubt that their main job was to learn. They set a fast pace for classmates and they knew the adventure of discovering exciting ideas.

Sophomore officers did a good job of leading their class and as a result their classmates enjoyed well-organized parties. Miss Genevieve Mahan is this class' head guardian.

Sophomores

The class of 1954 ventured happily and expectantly into McKinley as shy as any freshman class, but they soon outgrew this shyness for the upperclassmen teased them until the frosh felt like they were among big brothers and sisters. As freshmen, our sophomores obligingly accepted dead-end directions, bought elevator tickets, and became used to the shouts of upperclassmen when they went "up" on the "down" side.

Like butterflies from cocoons, the freshmen have blossomed into sophomores, and last fall found them giving dead-end directions, selling elevator tickets, and shouting at erring freshmen.

This year the sophomores proved themselves a necessary part of the school. Club meetings found them actively participating in everything from snapping shots for the Camera Club to staging Roman plays for the Latin Club. The Booster Clubs attracted most of those in the class, and sophs were among the most enthusiastic and loyal at games.

This class had elected in their freshman year the following leaders: Jack Chin, president; Joan Mannos, vice president; Joanne Dickerhoof, secretary; and Betty Ash, treasurer. During their first year, these leaders introduced their classmates to many of the school's traditions. For example, on the day of the Massillon parade the class was taught that no self-respecting McKinleyite would fail to buy a red carnation from the Girls' Boosters, be without a shakeroo, and talk like anything other than a case of laryngitis over a bad connection on the phone the day after the game.

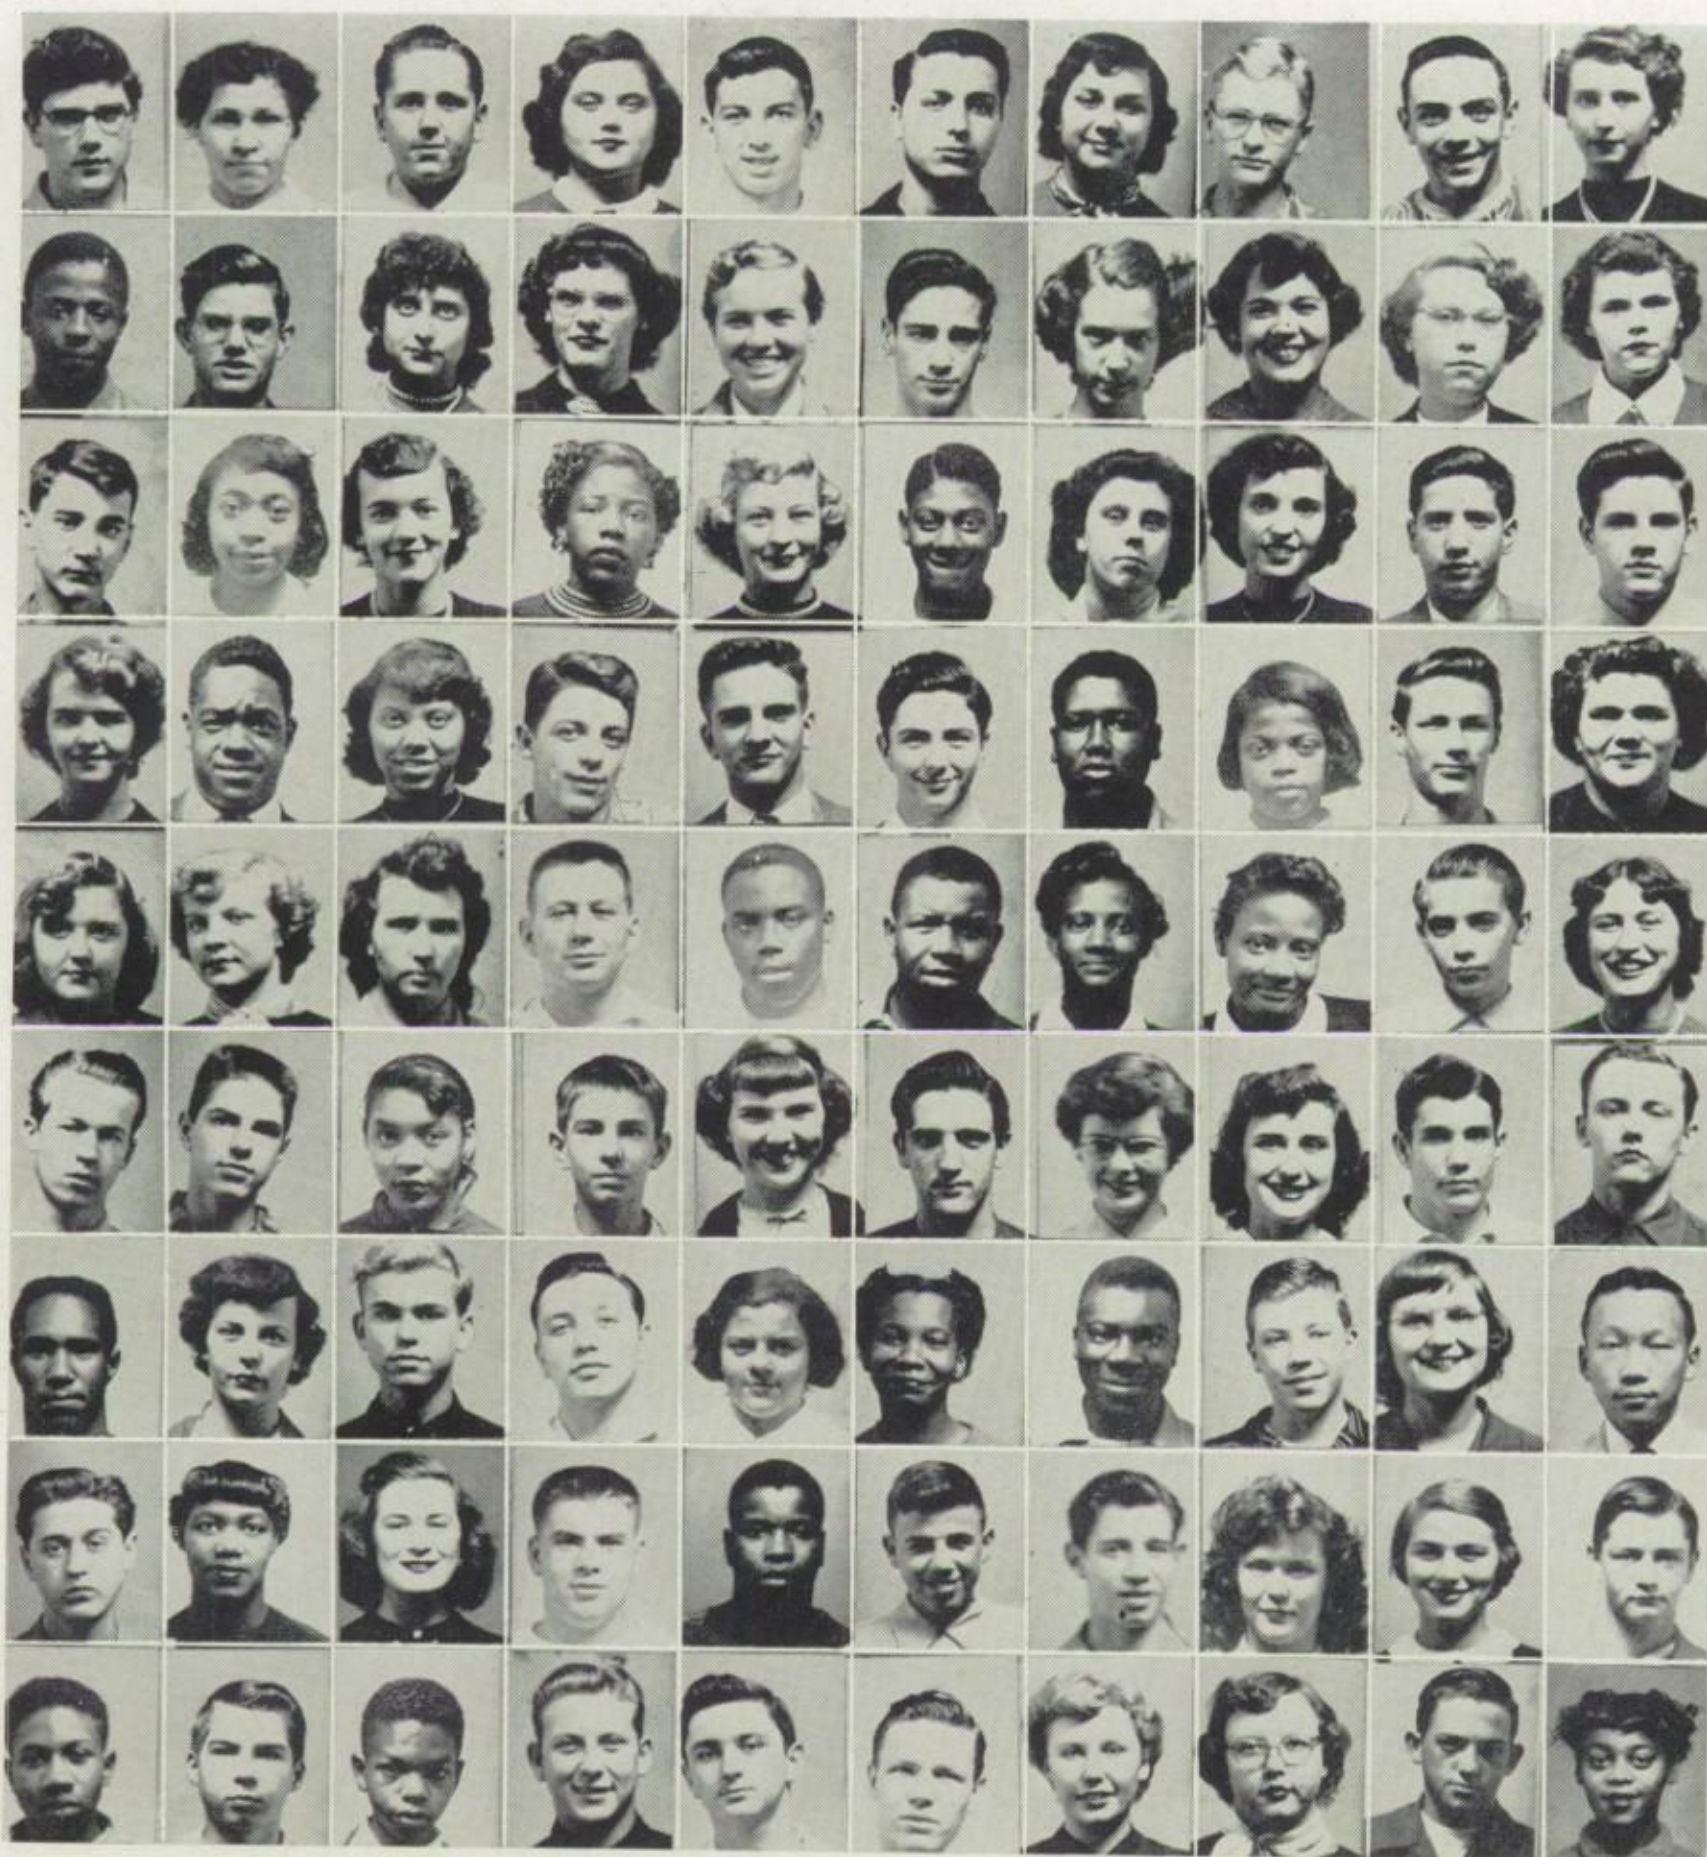

The sophomores upheld the school's traditions by attending the games at the Fieldhouse. Both as freshmen and sophomores the class watched the swimmers splash to fame. A Valentine party and an April Showers party were highlights of their freshman year.

As sophomores, this class had begun to grow up, and when the rest of the nation began to listen to campaign pre-election talks, sophs turned their attention to their own candidates. In November they went to the polls, set up by the Student Council, and elected Fred Broda, president; Thamy Korosides, vice president; Antoinette Barboza as secretary and Myra Rausch as treasurer.

Under their leadership, class committees swung into action and a "Winter Hop" and May party were arranged as the two class dances of the year. Council meetings found the sophomores more at ease and better acquainted with procedures than they had been their previous year, and they contributed to the policies of the group.

When the Roaring 100 Club was formed, sophomores wholeheartedly joined in, and the club made both the football and basketball season fun, for through the Roaring 100's the enthusiasm and pride of the school was concentrated into dynamic energy. They carried the Canton McKinley banner high.

Freshman Snaps

The freshmen had a grand time during their first year at McKinley. They were busy studying but found time for parties, too. Sports also took up a lot of their time. They're looking forward to 1952-53 . . . when they'll play the part of "big time" sophomores.

Freshmen

September 6, the day we had eagerly awaited, had finally arrived. It was the first day of school and seven hundred of us excited freshmen found ourselves on the way to four years of a brand new life. We slowly walked into the huge building, our hearts pounding loudly, and our stomachs jumping with large butterflies. The halls were so large and we didn't have the least idea where our rooms were. Around the halls we went and finally, by accident, stumbled upon them.

The day continued with each of us losing our way and shyly going to an upperclassman and asking. They would kindly tell us the right way, which would usually prove the wrong. Some of the upperclassmen even took pity on us for having to climb all those stairs and sold us elevator tickets for twenty-five cents each. We were so glad and hurried to the elevator. The tickets, however, proved to be another of the upperclassmen's practical jokes.

McKinley, we found, was quite different from what we were used to. Here we had our own class officers who helped make the laws, where, before, it had always been the teachers who made them. We had excellent officers: George Petroff, president; Carol Snider, vice-president; Doris Nist, secretary; Jack Ackerman, treasurer. We also had a member of the class on the Student Council. The Student Council did big things this year. The minute prayers in the cafeteria, for instance, and many other things too numerous to mention. They helped make school run a little more smoothly for us.

School soon became a daily ritual with everything running almost smoothly. Life became normal until that first all-important football rally. It was so exciting. We felt lost and insignificant as we walked into the large auditorium just packed with pupils, all clapping their hands and singing. The pep band was blaring and the cheerleaders cheering as if they couldn't cheer loud enough.

It was all noise and confusion but we loved it, and that night we went out and helped cheer our great team to victory. Although our team didn't win every game, we were always there, cheering loudly, and when that final game came, oh, what excitement! We shall never forget the long pep rally that had so much spirit, or the parade through the streets of Canton. The bonfire and all the fun we had, with everyone in the streets, the night before the all-important Massillon game. We didn't win, but how those boys fought. When we left the stadium we were very proud of them and especially proud to be called McKinleyites.

Do you remember the Freshman Mixer, the first party we had? For the first time in years the kids danced; that is, some of them. Most of them stood around the refreshment stand. Although the party was held right after school, we had a swell time. Also, remember the Y-Teen and Hi-Y Formal, the first formal most of us had ever been too. We were thrilled, but so afraid that we would get there and somehow or someway make a fool of ourselves. We did, however, get through the evening fine. Everyone had a great time and hated for the evening to end.

Christmas vacation came and went, and with it came the basketball and swimming seasons. Shall we ever forget the fighting teams we had in both? We went to the games, cheered, screamed, and practically went mad in the last few minutes. Although the kids didn't have much spirit at the pep rallies, they really had it at the games. Our basketball team fought hard, but lost in the last seconds of the game, thus failing to get a chance to win the state title at Columbus.

Our swimming team, however, came through the victors, and also the debate team. We were so amazed and proud of the trophies they won. They were beautiful. We shall remember them and hope to win many more to add to McKinley's fame.

Of course, before the year was over, we had another class party and another formal. This time we had even more fun. We were more sure of ourselves. We now belonged to McKinley and McKinley belonged to us.

School drew to a close and we were glad and yet a little sorry. We were glad of the vacation, but there had been so much fun for us as freshmen. We were now sophomores; no more razzing from upperclassmen, because we were part of them. We could now look at the new freshies and really give them the business, so to speak.

We looked forward to three more years as wonderful and even better than the last. The years stretched before us like a wide road. We could do with them as we pleased. Either turn off that road or continue till the end . . . GRADUATION.

This year the Student Council played a prominent part in the life of the school and the community. In addition to continuing the projects of previous years, such as class elections, the Massillon parade, and the observance of William McKinley Day, this year's council tackled new tasks which they hope will become traditional. The saying of grace at lunch and the Christmas Red Stocking were innovations made by the present council. Miss Elizabeth Motschman advises the group.

Roaring 100's

With the waving of red shakeroos and a shout of "hold that line" from a section of bobbing red beanies, the Roaring One Hundred Club upheld its purpose . . . to add more spirit to the student cheering sections that support our athletic activities. This, McKinley's newest club, was originated by the Girls' Boosters during football season and continued throughout the basketball, swimming and baseball seasons.

Twenty-four students qualified for membership by earning 20 credit points. The degrees held by McKinley students increased by two-thirds during the last year.

Mr. J. F. Rickey is the faculty adviser for the club, as well as being the speech coach here. Under his guidance McKinley won the sweepstakes trophy at the Eastern Ohio N. F. L. tourney. This trophy signifies the best speech team in the Eastern Ohio district. Besides speaking, the club had many social outings. This school year the N. F. L. has had more success than in the past few years.

During the year they also won first places at Canton South, Jackson, and at the Delaware tournaments. Besides winning these debates, McKinley's debate squad placed high at practically every debate tournament they attended.

McKinleyites interested in teaching found the Future Teachers Association an invaluable club, for through this organization, the J. L. G. Pottorf Chapter, the future teachers took over study halls, had an opportunity to teach on Student Teacher Day, visited elementary schools, aided lower grade teachers on field trips, and heard speakers discuss various phases of teaching. The group arranged a program honoring students who maintained 90 or better averages the first semester, and on April 27 were hosts to the Alliance F. T. A. and to the officers of the Lincoln and Lehman chapters. At a recognition program, members received certificates if they had obtained enough merit points. Miss Inez Summers is the adviser, assisted by Miss Ethel Swinehart.

Hallguards

The quiet, orderly conduct in halls is due largely to the efficient staff of hallguards, who are supervised by the hallguard chairmen. Two chairmen are on duty each period, and every day the chairmen check the guards whom they have assigned to duty. No student can pass by a hallguard without showing a slip permitting him to be in the halls. Mr. Lee Pancake is faculty adviser to the guards.

Art League

Visits to the Art Institute and programs with speakers highlighted the Art League's program. At Christmas time, members shared their talents with the women at the Aultman Home by making decorations and favors for the home. Jeanne Snider was president and Miss Key Wenrick is adviser.

Junior and Senior Y-Teens

Starting off the season with a recognition service at the new Y. W. C. A., the Junior-Senior Y-Teen embarked on a full year of activities. The opening service was followed by a series of dances, parties, and swimming and bowling contests.

The annual Christmas formal, December 21, was followed by Sweetheart and Hobo dances. Club programs consisted of panel discussions, speakers on teen-age problems, and social affairs, such as covered dish play-nights, followed by swimming and bowling.

Also enjoyed by the members were the many joint meetings with the Freshman-Sophomore Y-Teen Club and the Junior-Senior Hi-Y Club. The club's basketball team came out well and members were also active in the bowling tournament. The year was climaxed by a spring formal on June 6.

Adding to the already varied programs offered by McKinley High School was the introduction of Oral Classes for the deaf and hard-of-hearing in 1949 by Mr. W. H. Wagner, specialist in training the deaf.

In the Oral Classes, the children receive speech and lip-reading and are guided in their work by Mr. Wagner. Through speech and lip-reading, the children with hearing impairment are able to compete with children with normal hearing and attend regular classes.

The students under the direction of Mr. Wagner have chosen various fields. Some have chosen sewing and cooking in the Home Economics department and some have found interest in the Business and Commercial courses, while the boys have entered in the printing and machinist trades. All of the students take gym and the boys seem to show a preference for swimming, while the girls seem to enjoy folk dancing.

Many civic clubs and organizations have chosen this special department as their project and have donated equipment to the class.

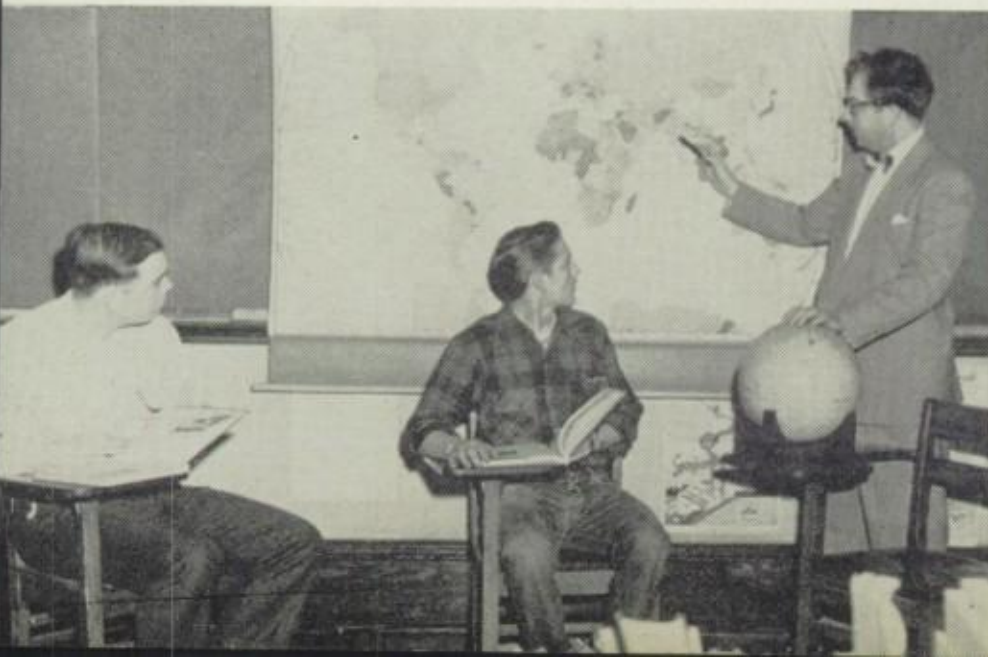

The students and Mr. Wagner wish to thank all of those organizations and teachers who have made them feel so welcome.

Music Music

Band

Important in the music curriculum of McKinley is its well-trained band. Band members practice two periods a day, three days a week. At half-time during grid season, band members step out in perfect unison; basketball time finds them maintaining school morale with peppy music; and in the spring band members present a polished and serious concert of semi-classic and classic music. Director of the band is Mr. R. Donald Stump.

Orchestra

The McKinley orchestra, directed by R. Donald Stump, played for the operetta, "Countess Maritza," National Honor Society, "The Messiah," the Spring Festival, Baccalaureate Services and Commencement. The orchestra's participation in school programs added to the beauty and effectiveness of these programs, and it increased McKinley's appreciation of good music. Orchestra members also visited many elementary schools and presented programs.

Choral Club

The 1951-1952 Choral Club carried on the department's tradition of fine music, beautifully sung. During the Christmas season, the group presented Handel's "Messiah" on December 19 and also caroled in the halls the last afternoon before vacation. Biggest highlight of the year was its presentation of the operetta, "Countess Maritza."

Part of the Choral Club's program is to share its music with the community and during the year the choristers made many appearances at meetings of service clubs, at Lenten services, and in hospitals. The Choral Club also sang at the Spring Festival, Class Night, Baccalaureate, and Commencement. Mr. L. D. Hanson is the director.

This talented group extends its knowledge and experience in the field of dramatics by the constant production of plays. Among its performances were those at class parties, civic clubs, and churches. The Thespian Club was in charge of make-up and prompting for the operetta. Members were cast as extras in the Black Hill's Passion Play. Also on the club's agenda was the annual dance, "The Snowman's Swing," held January 17. Heading the dance was Larry Miller, aided by Fern Stone. The club also had a banquet and picnic this spring.

Dramatic Club

Students who like to act should join this club. This club not only gives members a chance to demonstrate and develop their talents in the short plays and pantomimes which are presented at the meetings, but it also gives them opportunities to earn initial credits of ten points for the Thespian Club. The points can be earned many different ways, as the members of the Dramatic Club have learned. The club assisted the Thespians in the annual dance, "The Snowman Swing," held in January.

"The Little Dog Laughed," a play in three acts, was presented by school dramatists on December 6 and 7. They were supported by Bruce Robeson, Nancy Ubelhart, Jo Ann Kohler, Dorothy Healey, Eleanore Sebrans, Joan Tempsey, Pauline Pachmayer, Gene Garaux, Fred Peddicord, Myrna Hogue, Erva Wenger and Nancy Garris. Assigning news stories, editing material from the journalism classes, laying out pages, and writing headlines were part of the staff's routine in meeting deadlines with the printer. Complete coverage of school news was the staff's goal. At semester, staffs were changed, and during the year 35 students were able to serve on the school paper. Stories were supplied by members of the four journalism classes. Miss Mary Hanna was the adviser.

Annual Staff

To provide a school record of 1952, staff members planned their book early in the fall and immediately began scheduling pictures. From January to May, staff members frequently stayed long hours after school to paste pictures in layouts for the book, name the pictures, and provide brief writeups for them. Aim of the staff was to represent all activities and social affairs so that the '52 graduates would have a complete record of their year. Miss Mary Hanna was adviser.

Business Staff

Taking subscriptions for the Canton McKinley Times and the McKinleyite, gathering ads, keeping the publications out of debt, taking pictures for the yearbook, and having parties are the many things that the business staff of McKinley do.

The members of this staff get up very early every Thursday to sell the Times. The day that this McKinleyite was distributed, members of the business staff worked very hard. Besides having salesmen and distributors, the staff has its own photographers. They take and develop all the pictures for the yearbook and most of the pictures for the school paper. The photographers have their darkroom in 303, the staff room.

Mr. Ralph Buchanan is the adviser of this group.

Yet young and inexperienced, a highly spirited Bulldog eleven opened the 1951-52 gridiron campaign with a decisive victory over a well-balanced Cleveland Lincoln aggregation, 20-6.

McKinley showed surprising aggressiveness plus speed and drive which enabled them to overcome many faults. A total of six penalties covering seventy yards and five fumbles cluttered their path.

Led by Pat Burke, 200-pound junior fullback, and Bill Good, 175-pound junior halfback, the Bulldogs kept Cleveland Lincoln continually on the defense. Only once was there any question, when Lincoln took a quick 6-0 lead at the opening of the game. Larry Wise then scored on a line plunge of one yard, climaxing a 54-yard drive following the return kickoff.

Burke scored the remaining two touchdowns on five-yard and one-yard plunges. Good "cut off" right tackle, midway through the game, and jaunted down the sidelines half the distance between the goal posts, only to have the play called back. Burke averaged 6.3 yards per carry of the ball, while Good averaged 12.2 yards per carry.

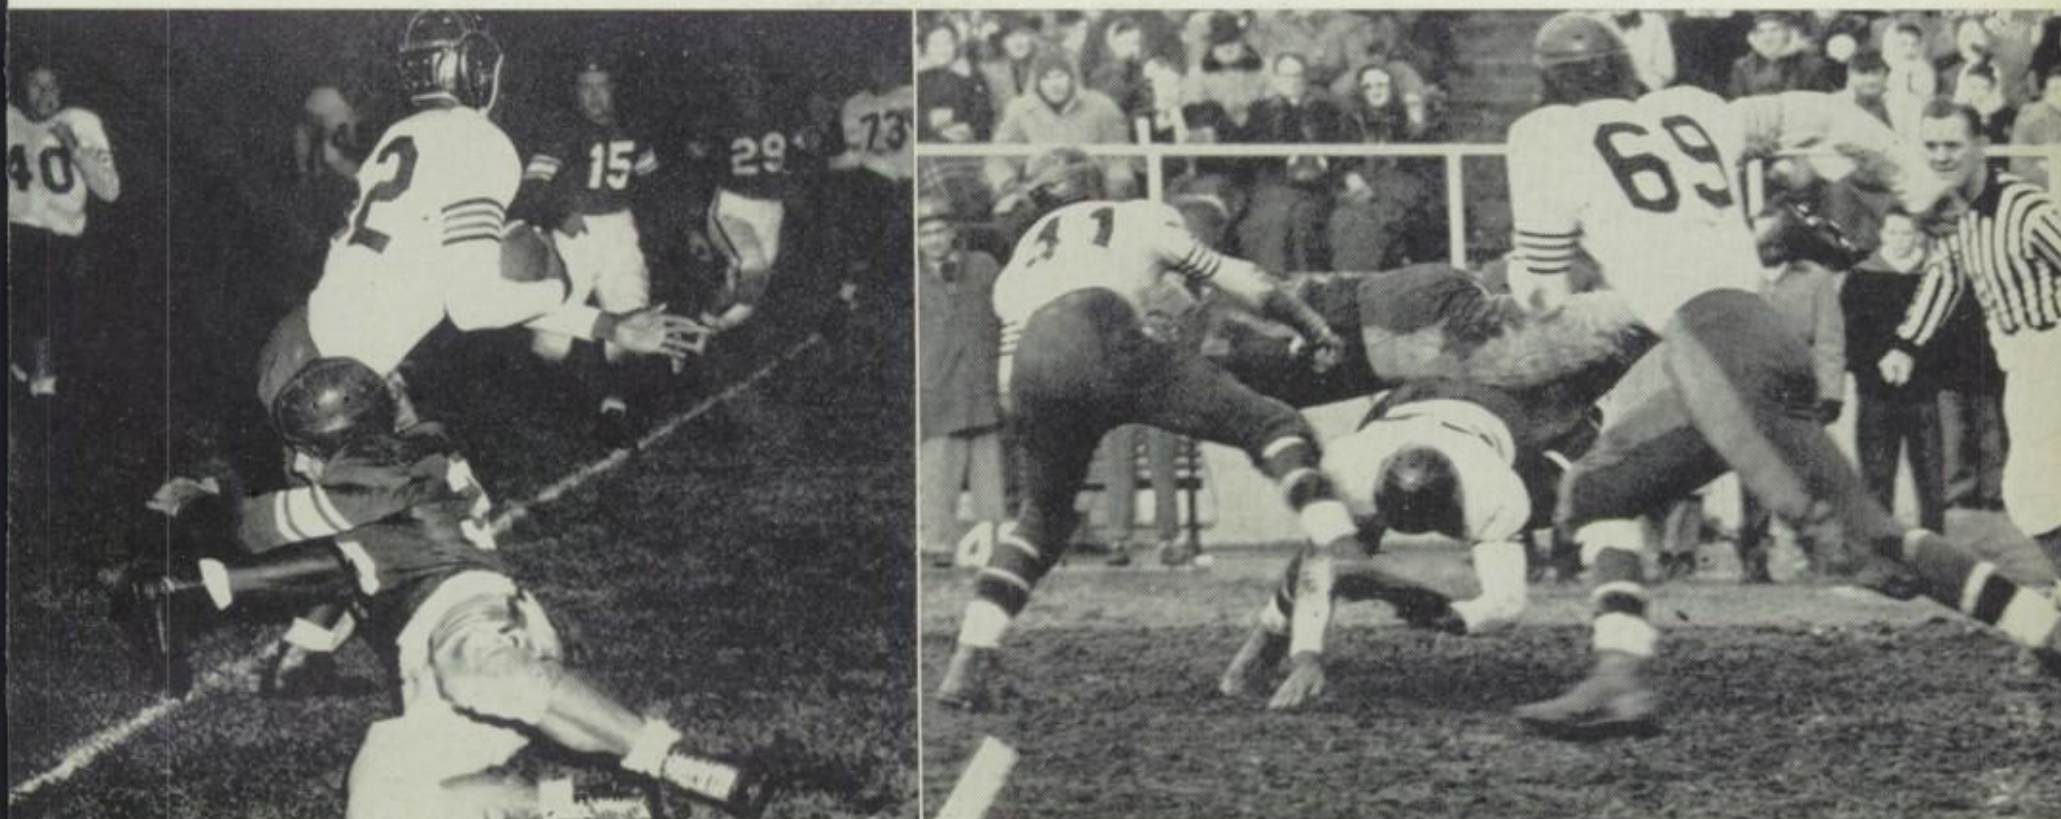

Their worst defeat in 20 years greeted the Bulldogs when they journeyed to Warren and they ended up on the odd side of a 45-6 score.

McKinley, which had dominated the series for the past five years, was out-rushed and out-passed to the tune of 488 net yards to —23 net yards.

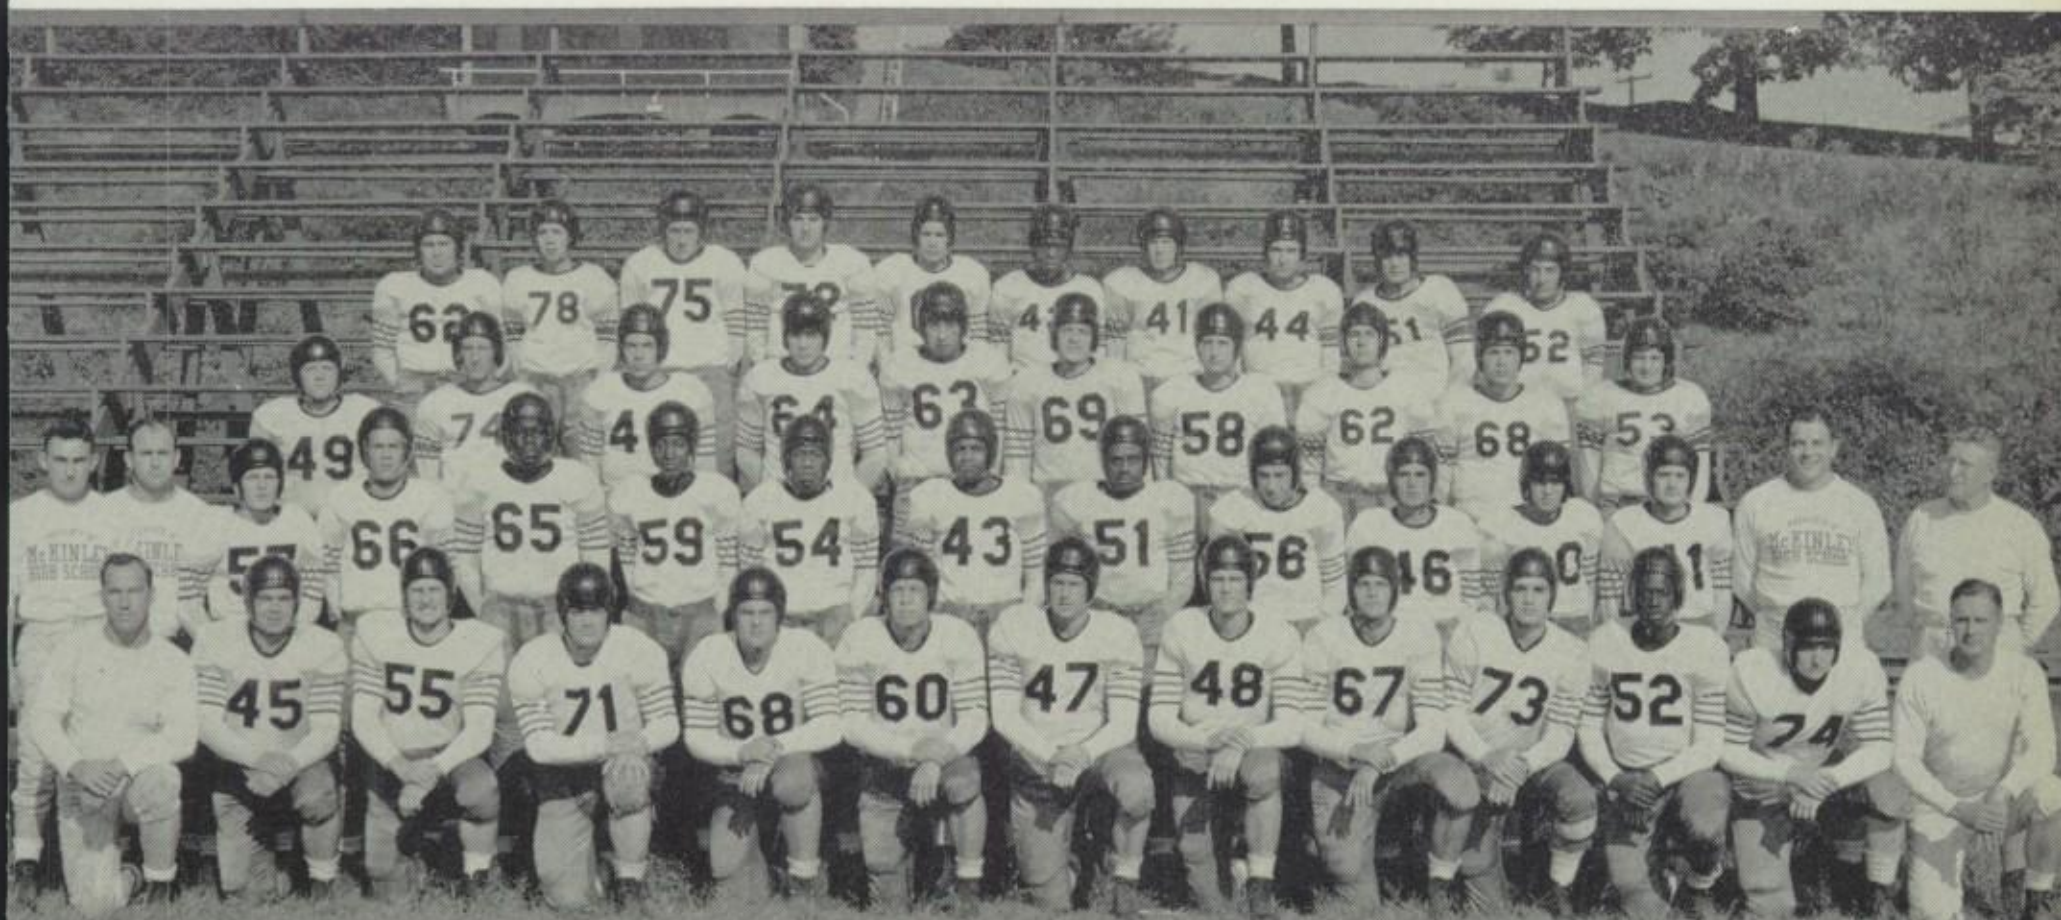

The Bulldogs, who seemed to be under a great nervous strain, committed many errors. Such things as faulty centering and fumbles proved hazardous.

The only bright spot in the Bulldog offensive surge was a 95-yard run to paydirt by halfback Larry Wise. Wise took one of the Panthers' kickoffs on his own five-yard line, proceeded to the center of the field, cut to the sidelines, and went all the way for the score. Dave Rogers, later to become an "All-Ohio" back, provided McKinley with most of its trouble, including runs of 62 yards and 57 yards for touchdowns, both coming in a span of 85 seconds.

Football

The third game of the "still young" season found the Timken Trojans handing McKinley its initial loss in the 11-game series between the two teams. This game, which marked only the second time in history that McKinley had been beaten by a local squad, was filled with individual errors which contributed to the Bulldogs' collapse. In the third quarter, a bad pass from center went over the head of George Ramsayer. Ramsayer recovered the ball on his own two-yard line, where Timken took the ball over on downs. The Trojans then scored through the line of the next few plays.

The Bulldogs took the next kickoff and returned the ball 59 yards to score, with Pat Burke going around left end for five yards and the touchdown. The very next time the Bulldogs got the ball, Jud Sprandell scored on the first play from scrimmage. The conversion was good and the score was knotted at 13 all.

After a completed pass gave the Trojans what proved to be the winning touchdown, Willie Bazen recovered a fumble. McKinley then carried the ball down to 20 and again to the 15-yard line, but it was to no avail as the game ended with the Bulldogs still trying to overcome the 19-13 deficit.

More surprises were in store, for the next week the Lincoln Lions romped over the Bulldogs, 21-6. The McKinley line couldn't hold as the Lions came charging through for sizeable gains. Don Davis led Lincoln with touchdown runs of 20 yards and 6 yards, while McKinley's only score came on a "break-away" jaunt by Jud Sprandell covering 73 yards. The Bulldogs, who never really got going on the ground, were hampered in the air by poor receivers and the tight pass defense set up by Lincoln. The victory gave the Lions the distinction of being the only local team to hold two wins over McKinley.

The Bulldogs played their finest all-around game of the season before going down to defeat at the hands of Toledo Waite. Hard tackling and fair blocking brought the crowd to its feet many times as the Bulldogs put on a great display of courage and stamina. A one-man performance by Buddy Peacock, 165-pound sophomore halfback, kept Toledo in the game and proved to be the winning link. Peacock, the only man to consistently penetrate into the McKinley secondary, broke into the clear for touchdown runs of 87 yards and 75 yards.

The first three quarters saw the Bulldogs play Waite to a 7-6 standstill. McKinley scored its only touchdown on a nine-yard double reverse by halfback Bob Mack, ending a tedious 63-yard drive to paydirt. Outstanding performers, on offensive, for the Bulldogs were Richard Albert and George Ramsayer, who together completed 11 of 19 passes for a .579 percentage. Pat Burke also averaged 6 yards for every one of his 14 carries in the 22-6 defeat.

The scholastic scene was shaken up quite a bit by the third worst defeat in the annals of McKinley High School football. The Big Red from Steubenville amassed 38 points of their near-record defeat of the Bulldogs in the first quarter and then went on to win, 63-6. Jim Prayso, former McKinley student, led the Big Red to victory as he scored a total of three touchdowns. McKinley topped a 52-yard drive with a quarterback sneak by Richard Albert for their only score.

After completely dominating the Alliance series for the past 19 years, the Bulldogs went down to a 28-12 defeat at the hands of the Aviators. McKinley, while simply outclassed in the air, rolled up 238 yards to 70 yards on the ground and also took a decisive 14-6 edge in first downs. Sparked by freshman John Goodrich, the Bulldogs drove deep into Alliance territory, where Richard Albert scored on a quarterback sneak. The other Bulldog touchdown came after Bill Good intercepted a pass on the Alliance 49-yard line. Otis Howard then cut off tackle and went the remaining distance. Harold Gray handed McKinley most of its trouble as he scored three touchdowns. Outstanding performers for the home team were Pat Burke, George Ramsayer, Richard Albert, and Goodrich.

One of the many hard knocks which the Bulldogs received during their discouraging season was their 32-0 loss to the Mansfield Tygers. Inexperience hampered the Bulldogs as they went down to their initial defeat in the Mansfield series. The Bulldogs fumbled four times and once let the ball roll free in the end zone on a kickoff. A Mansfield man came downfield and fell on the ball for the touchdown. Willard Grimsley carried the ball 12 times for 31 yards to lead the McKinley offense.

Playing heads-up defensive football, the Bulldogs snapped a seven-game losing streak with a 14-6 win over Youngstown Woodrow Wilson. Wilson, at an early stage in the game, took over the ball on the McKinley 13-yard line after blocking a punt. The line held and then the Bulldogs took the ball and marched 90 yards to score, with John Goodrich going over. Youngstown scored on five plays covering 65 yards before the first quarter ended. In the third quarter McKinley took the ball on the 20-yard line after blocking a punt. Burke went for four yards and then Goodrich scampered the remaining 16 to score. Gene Barber kicked both placements for McKinley.

As in the true fashion of McKinley spirit, the Bulldogs showed great courage in the face of mounting odds as they met the Tigermen from Massillon in the 56th game between the two teams. Before a crowd of 16,000 people, the youngest squad in history ever to participate in the annual classic spotted their opponents not only age but weight and a vast amount of experience. The Red and Black amazed everyone as they held the Mathermen to a mere seven points in the first quarter and the best part of the second. With but 32 seconds remaining in the first half, the slightly surprised favorites slashed over for their second score of the day and left the field with a 14-0 lead. McKinley twice put a scare into the Massillon fans as they penetrated the Bengals' 10-yard line. On one of these occasions, the Bulldogs traveled 45 yards, only to be stopped on the one-yard line. In the second half the glory was all the 'Tigers' as they rolled along to the final score of 40-0, which gave them the state championship. But to this very day, the fight, determination and tremendous backing of the student body, which gained overwhelming respect from all who watched, will never be forgotten.

Spirit is of great importance to a school and its team in producing a winner. These girls who helped to make this necessity possible deserve a great amount of credit for their untiring work.

Band

Snappy routines and great music helped to place this year's edition of the band high in the standings of the state's best. Under the direction of R. Donald Stump, these students gave their best in making every program a success.

Majorettes

Stealing the show at half-time became a regular habit for these majorettes, as they put on many fine minutes of entertainment at the Bulldog games. Along with their other activities, these girls represented McKinley in style.

Herb Schrade, Leroy Whitfield, Fred Zander, Lou Kovesci, and Bill McCoy. That's it. The McKinley High School first string basketeers in quest of another successful season here in 1952.

Other members of the squad, under the coaching of Don Everett, were George Ramsayer, Dave Meacham, Dick Albert, Chudy Popoff, Martin Peterson, Bob Mack, Leonard Walker.

Launching their season against the traditional first game foe, the Bulldogs buried Cleveland Lincoln under a furious second quarter barrage and then went on to win 62-47. Herb Schrade led the locals with an outstanding 23 points and gave all who watched an inkling of what was to come throughout the season.

But McKinley was to taste defeat in their next engagement as they fell before a highly seasoned Akron North team, 50-43. Again Schrade captured scoring honors with 18 points.

Bouncing back from their second defeat of the season at the hands of the Middletown Middies, 61-46, the Bulldogs rolled over Dover 61-55 with Schrade dumping in 22 more. Lou Kovesci made his first start of the season in this game and gave a fine showing, thus proving his ability as a permanent starter.

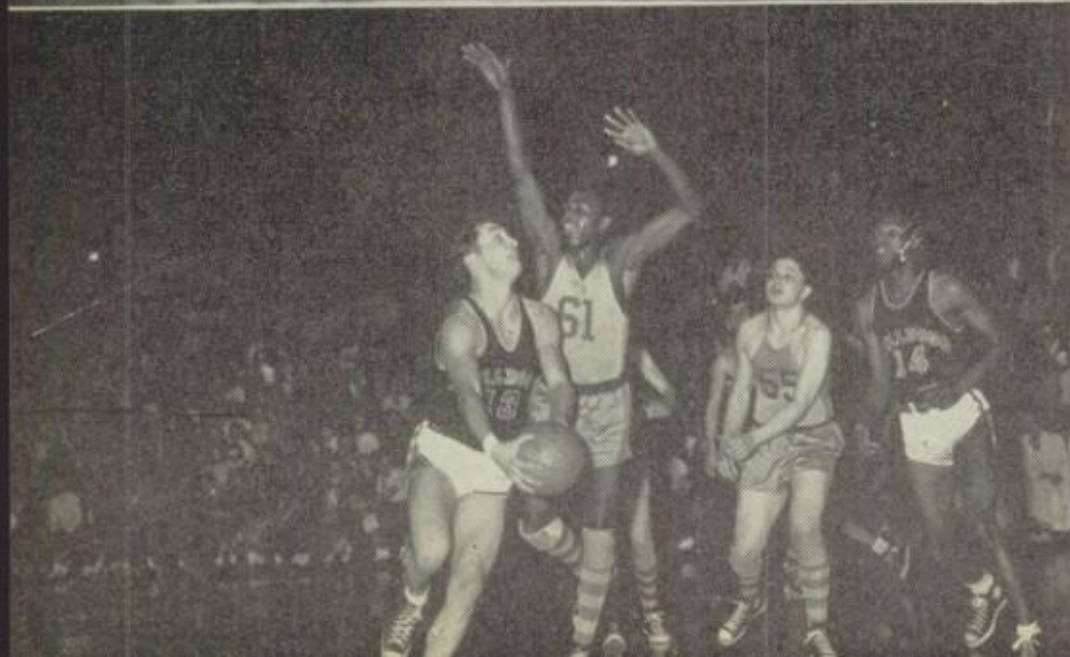

The Akron South Cavaliers found themselves to be the third McKinley victims as they fell 50-40 under the Bulldogs' sharpened attack. Schrade collected 22 points for the evening.

Losing in pairs was becoming a habit with the Bulldogs as they dropped first a game to Cleveland Heights, 55-48, and then to their well-known Massillon rivals, 64-53. Schrade led both campaigns with 17 and 19 points, respectively, and was followed by Bill McCoy, who played very well at his newly found pivot position, with 8 and 13 points, respectively.

Leroy Whitfield and Bill McCoy were the mainstays in the 59-52 romp over the Warren Panthers. Whitfield, along with collecting 23 points, controlled a good portion of the backboards, while McCoy sank numerous push shots for 19 points.

"Canton Night," viewed by over 4,000 fans, brought to the Bulldogs a 58-43 win over the Lincoln Lions. McKinley got off to a slow start, trailing 8-0, but leading the Bulldogs out of this predicament and into better standings was guard Lou Kovesci. Lou paved the way for his teammates with a keen alertness which enabled him to break up the Lions' defense. At one time he poured in seven straight points and at the half the Bulldogs led 28-23. Fred Zander and Schrade wound up with 13 points each to share the top position.

The Alliance Aviators' string of five consecutive wins was broken by the Bulldogs, 52-48, who extended their own streak to three. Paced by Whitfield, the Bulldogs jumped to an early lead but found themselves equaled throughout the remaining quarters, only to forge ahead in the waning minutes of the contest.

It was another defeat on the records for the Bulldogs when they encountered the unbeaten Big Red from Steubenville. Lacking the desire to jump after the first quarter, McKinley saw their aggressive opponents, under the direction of small but mighty Bill Ross, pull far ahead. Ross' demonstration of accuracy amazed the fans as he pushed 33 points through the hoop for a new fieldhouse scoring record. Herb Schrade found the range for 19 points to lead the locals.

A great exhibition of jumping and shooting by forward Bill McCoy wasn't quite enough to lead his teammates to victory as the Bulldogs dropped a close one to Canton Timken 52-50 in the dying seconds of the game. McKinley, who led almost the entire game, faltered in the last quarter under the consistent point making of Tom Colaner, who led the Trojans with 17 points. McCoy also had 17 points.

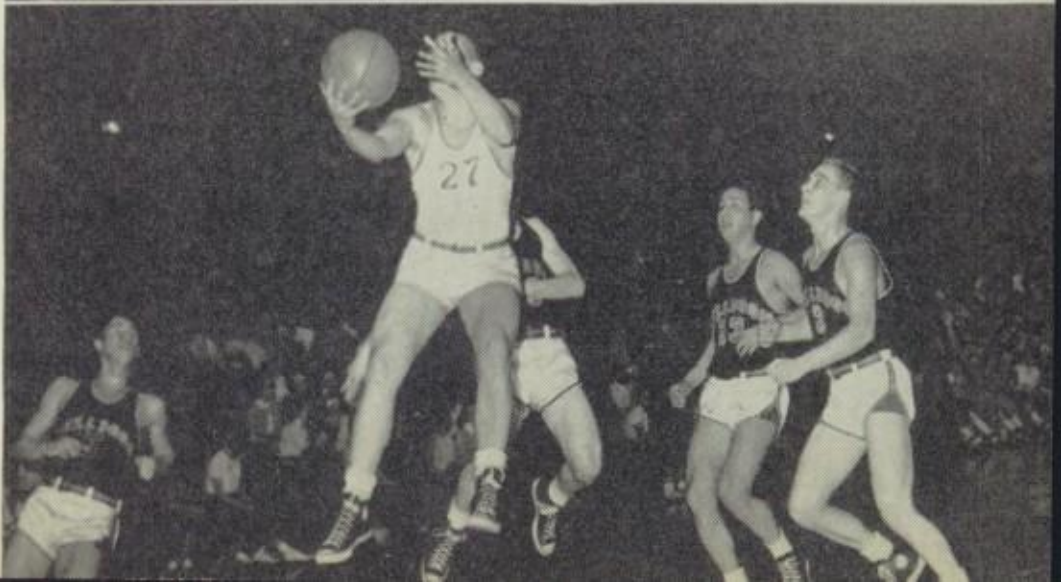

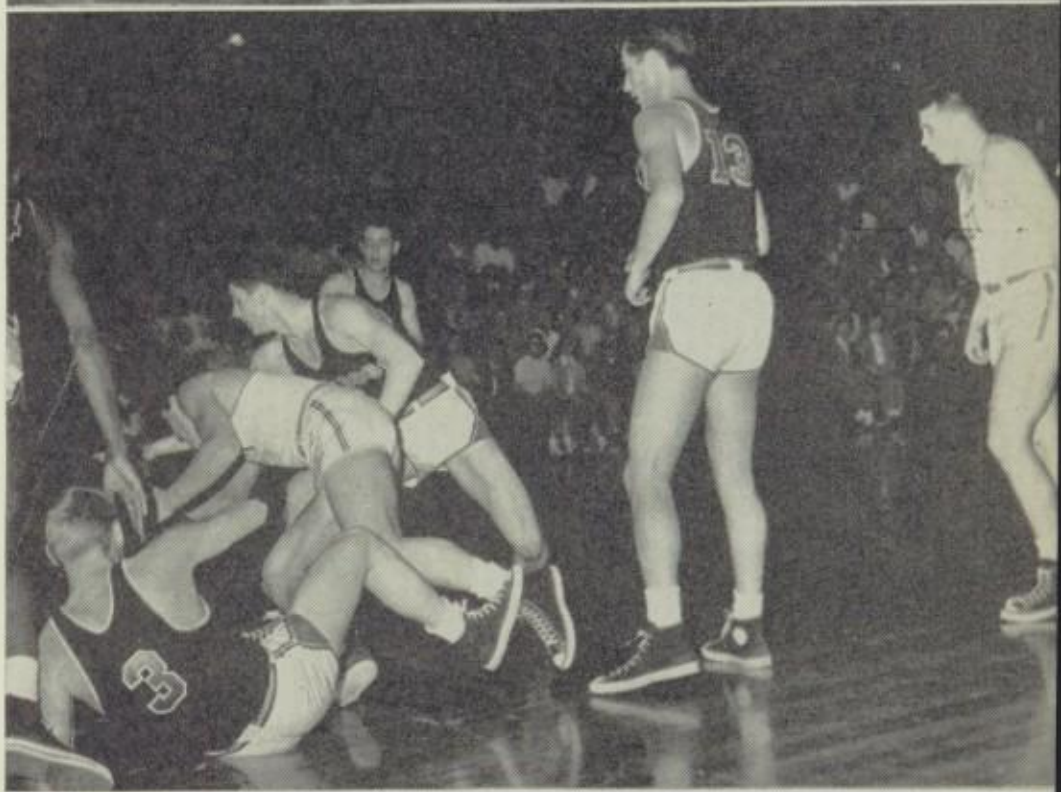

The Bulldogs bounced back from their second loss of the season to the Massillon Tigers, 41-39, with a thrilling win over the Alliance Aviators in the dying seconds of the game, 49-47. Herb Schrade's set shot proved to be the winning margin. Fred Zander was high with 15 points.

The Bulldogs pulled an upset on the East Liverpool Potters at the fieldhouse with a 54-46 score. Zander again led the Bulldogs with 20.

Mansfield, next team on the list, downed McKinley 60-54. The Bulldogs were greatly handicapped by the loss of Leroy Whitfield at the beginning of the second half. Zander carried the biggest part of the load from then on with 13 points.

Tournament time again found the Bulldogs in an excited state. They drew their one-time conquerors, the Timken Trojans, for their first game. But this time it was different, as the Bulldogs ran over the Trojans 57-50. Bill McCoy led McKinley with 16 points, 12 of which were scored in the last half and contributed greatly to the Bulldog victory.

It turned out to be their last game, but their best game, as the Bulldogs fell before the once-beaten Minerva Lions. It was a point-for-point struggle with every shot counting, and the underdog Bulldogs surprised everyone with their fine endurance, which enabled them to tie Minerva and enter a three-minute overtime. McKinley was greatly hampered by the loss of Kovesci, Whitfield, Zander and McCoy by the foul route, but never lost the fight and determination which are symbols of good sports. The final score was 73-71.

Basketball

The McKinley future lies in the hands of its Reserve and Freshman teams and that in itself is gratifying.

The Reserve team fought its way to the city crown by outlasting a pesky Timken squad in the final game of the season. None of the performers were outstanding, as the group showed all-around team work in attaining the city championship.

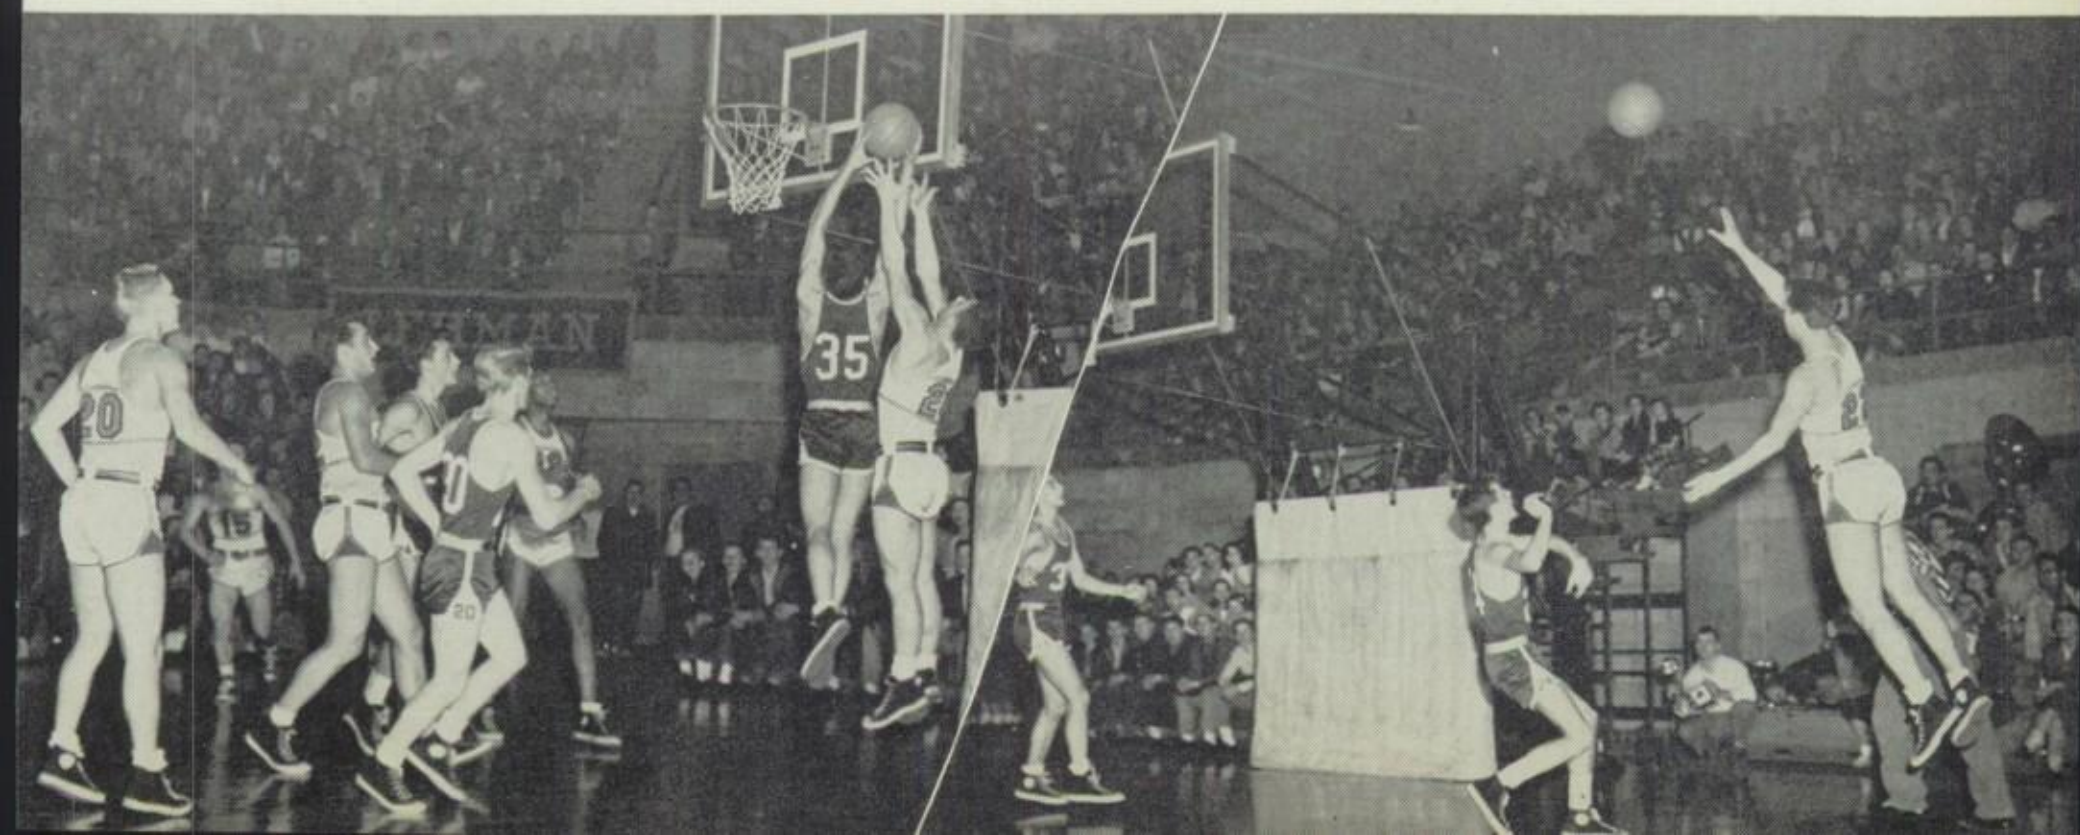

They rolled over such opponents as Lincoln, 40-30; Timken, 61-58; and Lehman, 40-38, not to mention numerous other teams which they defeated throughout the season.

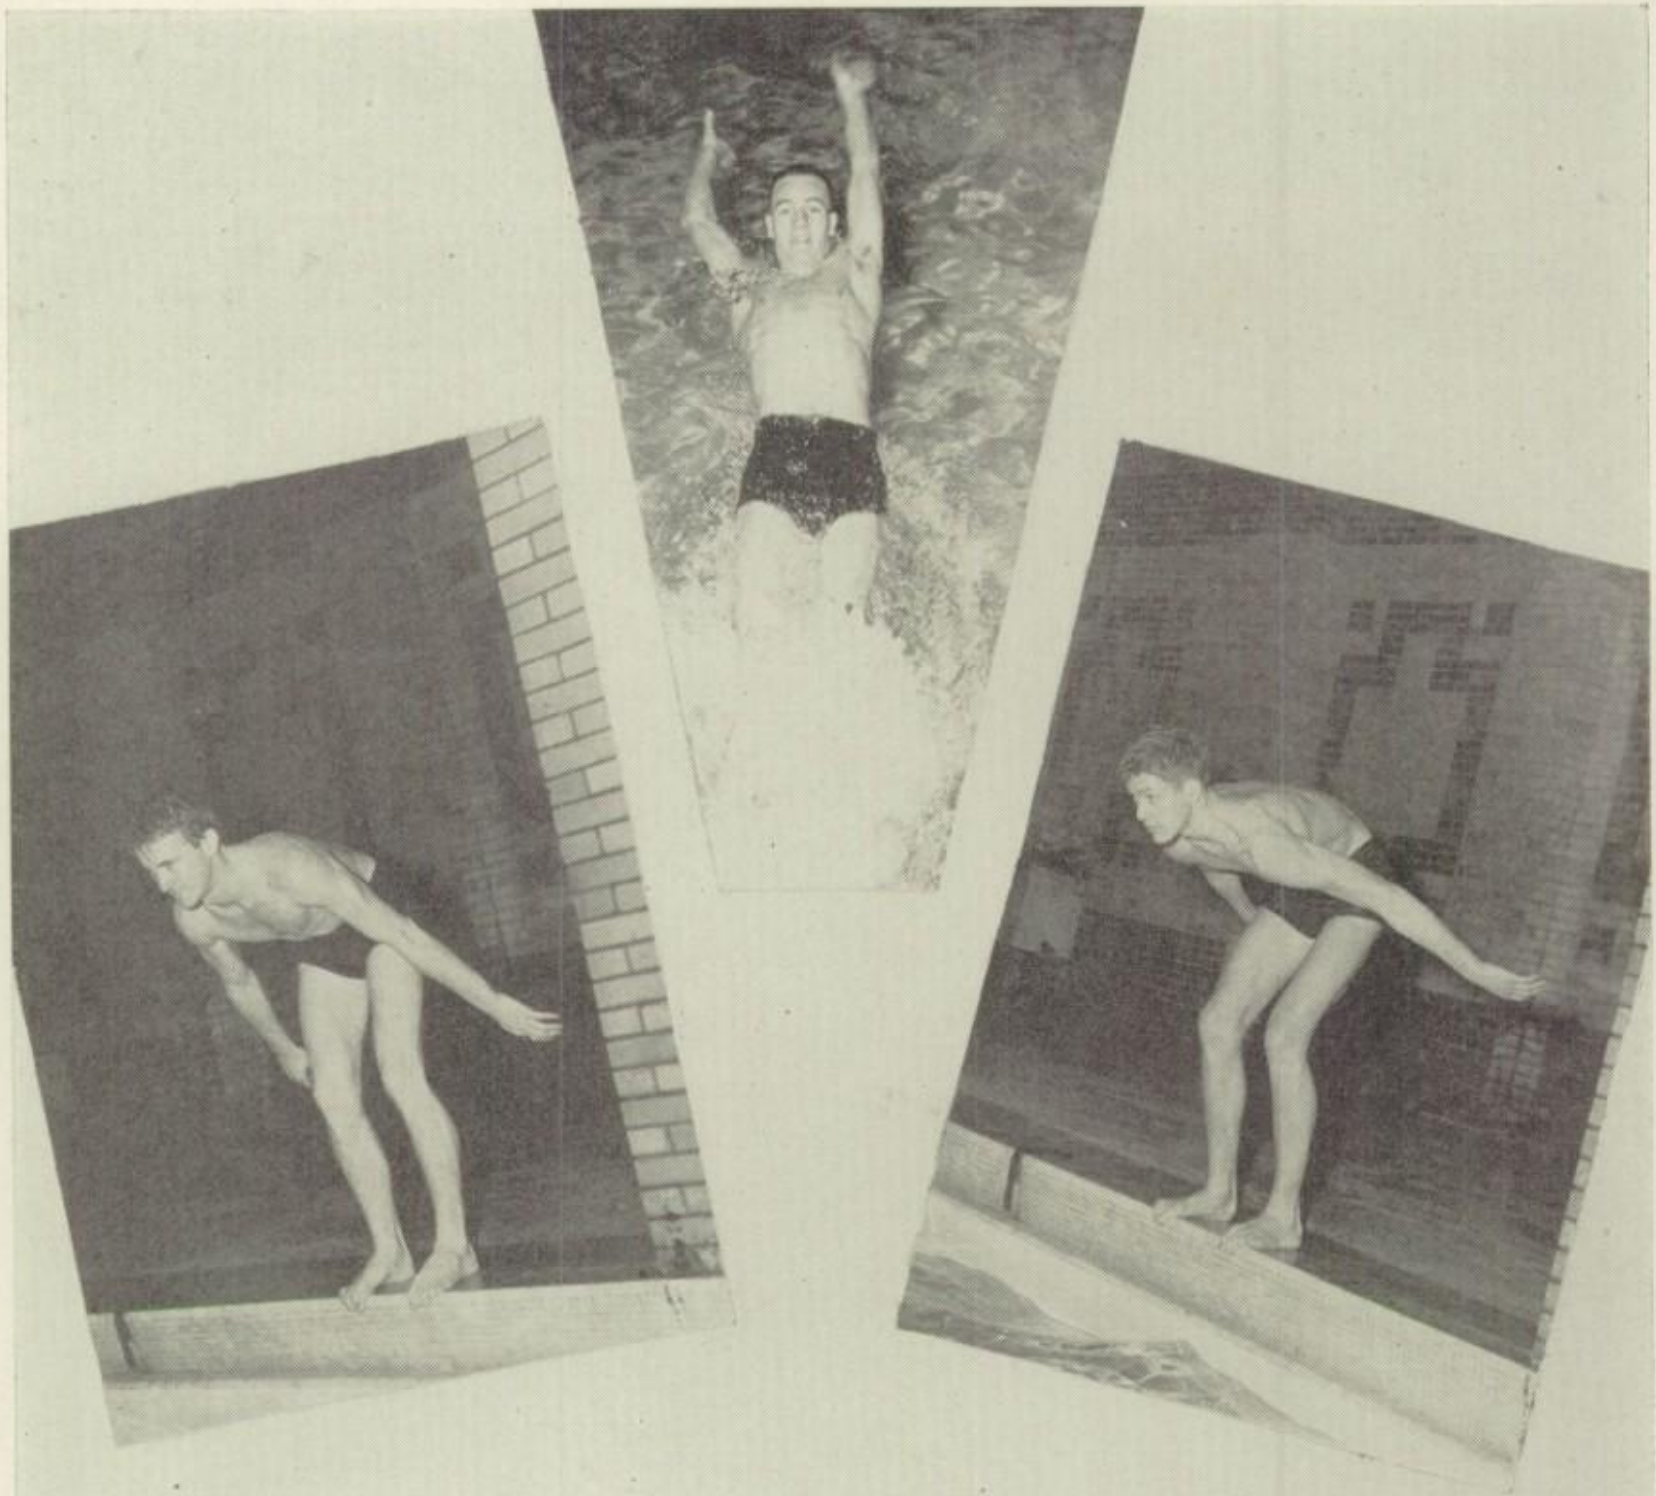

The Freshman squad, not to be outdone, clinched their league title by racking up seven straight wins against two losses. Two of the players on this squad were given added experience with the varsity. They were Ken Bandi and Paul Stubbs.

The Pups ran over such teams as Lehman, 49-25; Timken, 47-31; and Lincoln, 73-32.

All in all, two championship teams were formed and future McKinley Varsity material was in the making.

Mermen Retain Crown For Second Straight Year

How they do it only Coach Ted Branin knows, but the McKinley mermen, in meeting all opposition, rolled through their fourth consecutive undefeated dual meet season and copped the state title.

The two main reasons for the mermen's sensational success can be found in the persons of Ben Ledger and George Harvey. Both being four-year lettermen in this sport, they have contributed beyond measure to this unusual record.

Ben holds records in the 40, 50, 100 and 200 yard freestyle events and the 100 yard breaststroke. He also was a member of the 120, 150 medley relay teams and the 180 yard and 200 yard freestyle relay teams. These records were set not only in local pools but many others all over the state.

George, who accompanied Ledger on the various relay teams, also holds his own records for the 100 yard backstroke and 150 yard individual medley event.

Before leaving for the state meet, the mermen had tucked under their belts ten straight dual meets, a second in the Bowling Green Relays and a first in the District meet, where they had a record-breaking total of 93½ points to 57½ points for their closest rival.

Then came the big journey to the Ohio State natatorium, where they swept all opposition aside in registering 46 points to 29 for second place Fremont Ross.

The mermen took the championship laurels by placing two individual firsts, one second, one sixth, and winning both relay events.

Ledger broke the state record for the 200-yard freestyle when he swam it in 2:00.9 seconds. The 200-yard freestyle relay squad also broke a state record when they swam the distance in 1:40.2 seconds.

This title became the seventh for Coach Branin's "ever strong" crews. Ted also led McKinley teams to victories in 1937-39-40-49-51.

But a championship squad must have all-around power and balance. This was supplied by Jim Kimmel, Ray Jacobs, Frank Fraunfelter, Bob Psenka, Frank Anderson, Pete Parker, Bob Rich, Joe Van Horn, Scott Litzenburg, Ronnie Stefan, Bob Nixon, Bill Van Nostran, Ken Farmer, and Ron Ford.

Kimmel, Jacobs and Parker manned the winning relay team at Ohio State, Psenka and Kimmel the medley relay team, and Fraunfelter and Anderson placed in the diving.

One national record was threatened during the season as the quartet of Jacobs, Kimmel, Harvey and Ledger churned 200 yards in 1:37.4 in an exhibition at Ohio State. The national record is 1:36.3.

Back in 1948, the mermen of McKinley dropped their final meet of the season to Western Reserve Academy, 34-32. They opened the next season with a decisive win over Akron St. Vincent, 47-19.

These facts show where the losing stopped and the winning began, for McKinley teams started a campaign which will hardly be forgotten. They won 42 straight dual meets in a row and are hoping to extend this mark further in the future.

But no matter what the future may hold in store for Coach Ted Branin and his boys, McKinley, Canton, and the whole state of Ohio can well be proud of the reputation which they have established throughout the country.

Back again this year to guide the golfers, Earl Loucks and his four outstanding lettermen will set their sights on the state meet.

September

- 5—The freshmen invaded McKinley today. The upper-classmen, as you can see, tried to profit by them.
- 6—Everyone is still wearing new clothes.
- 14—Our first football game and our first win was with Cleveland Lincoln.

October

- 19—Just a minimum of our cutest girls were up for queen. Violet Johnson won out.
- 22—Monday blues caught up with me. Our team is still dragging. We gotta have another victory soon.

November

- 2—The Roaring 100's was in full swing and nothing better could have happened to our spirit. As our team went down and under many times, the Roaring 100's gave them new spirit.
- 10—Youngstown Wilson felt our sting. Our second win! The team had a breakfast of Wheaties instead of a steak dinner, which probably was the deciding factor.
- 17—Massillon came over to Canton and found us fresh out of Wheaties. We lost.

December

- 1—Cleveland Lincoln again came to Canton, only for basketball this time. A big crowd welcomed our "almost champs" back to the fieldhouse as we took the victory from the visitors.
- 21—The Choral Club sang carols through the halls. It was very impressive. Now if it would only snow. Golly! Only one week this year for Christmas vacation.

Calendar of Events

May

- 2—Tonight's the Prom. I'm so excited. Everyone's going, so it's bound to be great fun.
- 23—Haven't had a vacation in five weeks now. Golly!
- 29—Class Night saw our outstanding though small class receive many honors. Time sure is flying.

June

- 5—Graduation was tremendous. Boys were in blue robes, girls in white. I wish I were a freshman just starting at McK. again. Great school, I tell you!
- 6—Last day. I got my card but what makes the diff. — I graduated. Everything looked very bare.

It was fun remembering the important days in our last year at McKinley. I missed a lot of other important days, I know, but every day at McKinley is a gloriously important one.

Goodbye and Good Luck to the "Class of '53" from the

When an American marks his X on a ballot, he can be certain of one thing. Nobody knows for whom or what he has voted. It's his secret. No one can influence or coerce him when he votes—and no one can penalize him for how he voted.

The secret ballot is one of the big secrets of a strong America. People who can vote without fear or reprisal offer little opportunity for would-be Hitlers and Stalins to take over. And while dishonesty can creep into government, the secret ballot is the one sure way honest citizens can stamp it out.

Communists would be delighted to see the secret ballot eliminated. Their kind of government doesn't succeed unless they can tell you how to vote. And after all, communism offers only one party to vote for!

We in America must make many sacrifices to combat Communist ambition. But one thing we must never sacrifice is the priceless right to think and vote according to our consciences. Nor must we ever give up any of the rights that keep this country free and independent.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS...

If you're a man with a diploma in his pocket . . . the next step ahead may be a problem.

Whatever you do, though, don't overlook the importance of first impressions. Whether it be at college or at the start of a career, many people will judge you by the way you're dressed. You can be well dressed without being extravagant by depending on The Harvard for style-conscious and quality-conscious clothes.
